

But to speak it is essential to first understand the sounds in English language and for these different listening activities have been introduced in the language lab software such as playing the game of tongue twisters. With the game of tongue twisters, teaching pronunciation of different words together could be made easily learnt.

These features are not there earlier to learn the sounds in English language and could only be possible with the help of multimedia content. With time the English language course is made so simple for the children that they started having fun to learn English speaking which earlier was too boring.

All the children's love to go to, learn English lab for their English speaking course. Even for teacher teaching pronunciation through the listening activities specially designed for children to make their teaching simpler and easy.

English speaking course has become fun for the children which make them learn the language quickly and easily with the clarity of basic rules.

For more information visit - <https://www.englishlab.co.in/blog/learning-english-is-fun/>