

Agencies create referral programs that encourage existing users to invite their friends. This strategy not only increases downloads but also enhances user retention.

Final Thoughts

A well-planned user acquisition strategy is essential for the success of any fantasy sports app. By working with a professional game marketing agency, you can effectively promote your app, attract more users, and stay ahead of the competition.